

The African Seed Company

Data Sheet

Yellow Maize SC510

Hybrid Yellow Maize. Early Maturing

- An early maturing yellow pro vitamin A variety, it is a lowland adapted variety suited for multiple cropping as it matures within 90days. It is highly sought after because of its orange color vitamin A quality.
- Yield : 5-6mt/ha with good agronomic management

The African Seed Company

Seed Co West & Central Africa

Telephone: +233 302 792 471

www.seedcogroup.com/weca

Technical

Physical Attributes

A small architecture plant that can be planted under higher plant population and also adapted to mix cropping.

Diseases and Pest Resistant

It is resistant to most common maize diseases and less susceptible to the newly introduced fall army worm caterpillar.

Special Attributes

A special pro Vitamin A enriched variety, early maturing and small plant architecture.

Agronomy Needs

It is N-use efficient, respond to good fertilization and weed free ecology. It has excellent N and water use efficiency.

Recommended Area of Deployment

Guinea and Savanna ecology and will do well in all maize growing areas

Grain Texture/Size/Colour

It has flint yellow grain that is intermediate in size.

Seed Rate

20-22kg per ha as the seed is smaller than other Seed Co varieties.

Yield

5-6mt/ha with good agronomic management.